Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/ sad dollars:

Chuck Ries because his good friend and golfing buddy, Tim Frazier was released from St. Peter's Hospital and is home feeling much better; David Mitola's because he delivered a free denture to one of the Christmas day Cohoes fire victims who lost their denture in the fire, and because he made a presentation to students enrolled in the Community Center's Day Care program about the importance of dental care. February is Children's Dental Health Month.

Bev Signoracci let everyone know that fellow member Amy Musiker is involved with her professional workshop but misses everyone; Byron Moak claimed spring is coming and was happy his friend and fellow Rotarian John Musco was present. Dick Hodge of the Latham club informed Byron that there was a Gift of Life donation at Albany Med where a Mongolian boy underwent successful heart surgery.

Mike Brooks was happy Chuck Dedrick was mentioned in the NY Times; and Marshall Barrett felt he has taken the official title of "most underdressed" from Mike Brooks. He had good news, announcing he was going on vacation to Germany soon, however he had bad news in that his wife makes the family decisions (although this is not news to many of us whose spouses call the shots).
