Program:

John Doemel, Director - Cohoes Community Center.

John Doemel, Director of the Cohoes Community Center accepted a Rotary Club award to the center. He also spoke to the members of the club about the activities there.

John began his remarks by expressing the center's gratitude to Al Pasinella and Walter Speidel for their dedication to the Board of Directors.

The Cohoes Community center has a 1.2 million dollar annual budget, 55 full or part time employees and 626 members. 76% of their revenue come from fees, grants from the State and membership programs. Another 14% is from two fundraisers: a fashion show, and the Mayor's Cup.

The center provides several program including: pre K, and a before and after School Program both of which are in partnership with the Cohoes City School District.

He explained that the rising cost of health insurance and utilities is one of their biggest challenges. They are also planning maintenance on their building including: painting the exterior and improving the front entrance.

John concluding his remarks by passing out an informational card regarding the Cohoes Community Center.

Al Pasinella congratulated John Doemel on the great job he is doing there.
