Club Business:

Colin Demers passed out the breakout for the July to December 2008 dues. Members cannot opt out of any part of them.

Program:

Keith Hornbrook, Director, Cohoes Multi-Service Senior Center.

Keith Hornbrook, Director of the Cohoes Multi-Service Senior Center accepted a Rotary Club award to the center. He also spoke to the members of the club about the activities there.

Keith began his remarks by expressing the center's gratitude to Board members Mike Brooks, Ed Tremblay and the former Director Mike Cooley.

Keith explained that the mission of the center is to provide programs and services to senior citizens, and to foster an environment in which seniors and staff feel as though they are a family.

Their funding is from grants from Albany County, United Way, and from local fund raisers (dinner raffles and wine tasting).

They provide several programs. Last year, they delivered 15,000 hot and over 6,000 cold meals to seniors in Cohoes, Latham, Troy and Watervliet. They provide this program 7 days a week.

They also provide the Care Giver program for seniors over 60. Volunteers do light housework, go to the store, etc. They also provide socialization activities for seniors.

They recently began dance, exercises and Tie Chie classes for seniors as part of a partnership with MVP.

The center's building will be getting a 'Face Lift'. A couple of rooms and the lobby will be repainted.

Response: Mike Cooley responded on behalf on the club.

Next Week's Program: Major Lydia Pearson, Director and Albany Area Coordinator - Salvation Army
