Program:

Marilyn Wheeler, Founding Executive Director of Counseling Care & Services, spoke to our Rotary Club. Marilyn explained that in this part of Albany County few organizations provide the type of services that they do. Counseling Care & Services provides a full range of: individual, marital, family and child related therapy. In fact, they have a contact with the Office of Mental Health to provide these services to children.

Most of their staff have masters degrees and are certified mental health counselors who: evaluate, and treat people in consultation with doctors. They help people with: anxiety disorders and depression; young mothers in dealing with the challenge of a new born child; building self esteem; how to discipline children and set expectations for them; assessment and evaluation for people on probation.

The experiences of Counseling Care & Services were instrumental in writing an American Psychological Association (APA) book entitled Therapeutic Alliances in Couple and Family Therapy.

For the past 10 years they have been located St. John's Episcopal Church, 405 Vilet Blvd in Cohoes.

Colin Demers responded on behalf of the club.

Next Week's Program: Award to Cohoes Public Library
