Cohoes Mayor John McDonald Discusses 'State Of The City':

John McDonald, Major of the City of Cohoes, spoke to a combined meeting of the Cohoes and Latham Rotary Clubs about the State of the City of Cohoes. See attached.

Rotary Basics: The 4- Way Test:

The 4-Way test is one of four principles that guide Rotarians in achieving ideals of service and high ethical standards. It was created by Rotarian Herbert J. Taylor in 1932. It was adopted by Rotary in 1943.

- 1. Is it the truth?
- 2. It is fair to all concerned?
- 3. Will it build goodwill and better friendships?
- 4. Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

See Rotary's Guiding Principles.

Also see The Four-Way Test Means Business for an example of how it is still being used in the business world.

State of the City of Cohoes for 2010

Marshall Barrett and Mayor John McDonald

John McDonald, Mayor of the City of Cohoes, spoke to the Rotary Club of Cohoes regarding the State of the City of Cohoes.

Last year the city began looking at increased cooperation for fire department services between the cities of Cohoes and Watervliet. The combined fire departments have 62 staff members and an annual budget of 4.5 million dollars. Anything that can be done to make these departments more efficient is to the benefit of citizens in both cities. The City of Cohoes will be having several public meetings in the forthcoming months on this subject and citizens are encouraged to attend. Partnering in this manner is about saving money, and at the same time maintaining a high quality of service.

The Major also explained that the city has been working with Albany County regarding more efficient ways to handle county wide 911 dispatching. The city is also looking at ways to consolidate tax assessment and collection functions.

Economic development efforts in downtown Cohoes are going well. Phase II, a 25 million dollar project to complete the Harmony Mills Apartments complex, has begun. Changes in demographics in the Capital District, such as Global Foundry in Malta, may create opportunities for Cohoes. Our city and others have an opportunity to become bedroom communities for people who will be moving to this area to work there. Several new businesses have been started in Cohoes.

The Mayor said that when he was a child, we went into the Commerce and Industry Office that office that Bob Van Alstine had upstairs in the Fishman building. At that time his office was one of the few up there. Today there are many offices there.

The 2010 Census in very important. Every person must be counted. Population is one of the factors that drive the sales tax formula, and will have a direct impact on the amount of sales tax revenue that Cohoes will receive.

The Mayor explained that ten positions were cut from the 2010 city budget. Costs such as health care costs and employee retirement continue to rise. At the same time, the city is also trying to find more revenue.

You cannot keep raising taxes. You have to look at each initiative and make a decision to do it based on whether you can afford to start it and to sustain it in the future. Sometimes you just have to say no, we cannot afford it!

The Mayor closed by stating that fundamentally he is an optimist. By working together, we can get through these fiscally trying times.
