Keith Hornbrook and Bob Van Alstine

The induction ceremony consisted of three parts:

Object of Rotary - Bob Van Alstine:

Rotary is an international organization of business and professional people with Rotary clubs in over 170 countries. When you join Rotary, you become a part of a worldwide fraternity. You can travel throughout most of the world and find a Rotary club within easy distance. Rotarians will welcome you warmly, even though the language may be different, the food unusual, and the location far from home.

The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise, and in particular, to encourage and foster:

First: The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second: High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying by each Rotarian of his or her occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third: The application of the ideal of service by every Rotarian to his or her personal, business, and community life.

Fourth: The advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Four Way Test - Keith Hornbrook:

I charge you to judge yourself by the Rotary Four-Way Test of the things you think, say or do:

First: Is it the truth?

Second: Is it fair to all concerned?

Third: Will it build goodwill and better friendships? Fourth: Will it be beneficial to all concerned?

• Presentation of New Members to the Club- Marshall Barrett.

You have a lot to learn about Rotary - it's not just another club. It's a way of life. But you were elected to membership because we felt you would fit into this way of life.

Always remember Rotary's mottos: "Service Above Self "

Rotary is like everything else - you get out of it what you put into it.

Congratulations you are at this moment the newest Rotarians in the world.

Each sponsor pinned the Rotary Pin on their inductee(s), and Marshall Barrett presented them with a personalized membership certificate.

Linda Tremblay took photographs of this memorable event.
