The following members paid happy/ sad dollars:

Johann Alvarez-Williams because she volunteered at the Ronald McDonald House; Judy Patrick because her son graduated, and two other children advanced to the next grade, and it has been a great week; Byron Moak because last night was the installation of officers for the Lansingburgh Rotary Club, two members received Paul Harris Awards, and he will be traveling to Toronto for the Shriners convention; Ed Tremblay because much progress has been made pouring concrete on the new Bridge Avenue bridge, and the second phase of the Harmony Mills project is coming along well; Keith Hornbrook because the pool is open at his home, but it has been raining and/ or cold ever since; next year (2010/11) more members should get involved to help Keith; Linda Tremblay to thank Marshall for the great job he did as president, and to Keith to wish him well as he begins his term as

Rotary Mottoes:

The first motto of Rotary International, "He Profits Most Who Serves Best," was approved at the second Rotary Convention, held in Portland, Oregon, in August 1911. The phrase was first stated by a Chicago Rotarian, Art Sheldon, who made a speech in 1910 which included the remark, "He profits most who serves his fellows best." At about the same time, Ben Collins, president of the Rotary Club of Minneapolis, Minnesota, commented that the proper way to organize a Rotary club was through the principle his club had adopted- "Service, Not Self." These two slogans, slightly modified, were formally approved to be the official mottoes of Rotary at the 1950 Convention in Detroit- "He Profits Most Who Serves Best" and "Service Above Self." The 1989 Council on Legislation established "Service Above Self" as the principal motto of Rotary, since it best explains the philosophy of unselfish volunteer service.
