Ed Tremblay was happy to announce the Kiwanis Club Fall Festival was successful, the art show was very popular. Friday night is the grand opening of the Foundry, the new center for art and culture in Cohoes! Chuck Ries was happy to be traveling to Savannah, GA for a family reunion. His in-laws are descendants from the dutch settlers in Brooklyn, NY. Marshall had a sad dollar that he missed the Fall Festival because he was in the Catskills. Linda Tremblay was happy her boss is on vacation so she could attend the meeting, and sad for the cut on Ed's finger that required stitches. John Farrell had a sad dollar for not attending the Fall Festival and because his "honey-do" list at home is long.

ROTARY'S WHEEL EMBLEM

A wheel has been the symbol of Rotary since our earliest days. The first design was made by Chicago Rotarian Montague Bear, an engraver who drew a simple wagon wheel, with a few lines to show dust and motion. The wheel was said to illustrate "Civilization and Movement."

Most of the early clubs had some form of wagon wheel on their publications and letterheads. Finally, in 1922, it was decided that all Rotary clubs should adopt a single design as the exclusive emblem of Rotarians. Thus, in 1923, the present gear wheel, with 24 cogs and six spokes was adopted by the "Rotary International Association."

A group of engineers advised that the geared wheel was mechanically unsound and would not work without a "keyway" in the center of the gear to attach it to a power shaft. So, in 1923 the keyway was added and the design which we now know was formally adopted as the official Rotary International emblem.
