Byron Moak paid because he is happy to be here and sad that the President-Elect of the Lansingburgh club lost his race for county court judge. He was also happy that he saw former Cohoes Rotary Club President Ed Dyer at a Harvest Brunch and invited him to attend the joint Rotary Christmas party.

Jake Robert paid to announce that his bone density test shows that his bones are brittle. Subsequently he fell in his bathroom but fortunately is doing well.

Peggy O'Shea was happy to announce that her son's soccer team made the NCAA and are going to Boston.

Chuck Ries bragged that his grandson Eric hit an in the park home run and that he is doing very well in school. His granddaughter Courtney has a 98 average in school. His granddaughter Jordan took a test and scored the highest in Heatly school.

Marshall Barrett announced that the Membership Committee met and that the committee could use more members and assistance.

Linda Tremblay was happy to be at the meeting this week and announced that ornament sales are going well.

Keith Hornbrook thanked Colin Demers and the Century House for serving their "enjoy one share one" meal at the Cohoes Senior Center. He was also happy that there will be no more political campaigning. He thanked Linda Tremblay for her hard work getting the recent media coverage for the club.

Colin Demers announced that $590 has been collected to date for ticket sales for the Keveny Reunion. November 16 the Century House is being honored at the Glen Sanders Mansion by the Albany Colonie Regional Chamber of Commerce.

Club Business

Keith Hornbrook noted that the District stresses service through vocation. He stated that the Cohoes club should keep track of when Rotarians like Dave Mitola make presentations in the community pertaining to their vocation, which is a community service.

Bob Van Alstine echoed Keith's sentiments. There is a lot being done to bring attention to the club. We have a good action plan in place and the members are working hard to implement the plan. Linda Tremblay is doing a great job with public relations. There will be an article in the December Spindle City Historic Society's newsletter featuring the history of the Rotary Club of Cohoes. Peggy O'Shea attended a district level grants training on behalf of the club. Bob thanked Peggy. For those Rotarians looking to assist the victims of Hurricane Sandy go to the district website for ways to help.

- We conclude each weekly meeting with recitation of The 4 Way Test, see below.

The 4-Way Test

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or do":

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
