Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Mike Brooks paid because Syracuse is in the Final Four. He also paid because the people sitting at his table were respectable and he didn't like it.

Bev Signoracci paid because she is having a good week. It is spring break and she has been taking her granddaughter on outings like museum trips.

Jim Corso paid because he had two closings this week. Diane Conroy-LaCivita paid for missed meetings and for the fact that the Century House did a wonderful job hosting a group of Diane's for lunch that included the Ambassador from Malaysia.

Sue Austin paid because she has both Syracuse and Michigan in her brackets. She also paid because all the President-Elects in the District answered a challenge and donated to the Rotary Foundation. Now the District is asking the Club Presidents to do the same. Finally she paid because the Mets won.

John Farrell paid for missed meetings and his birthday. Harriett Noble paid because she was happy to be with the club and happy to see all the positive changes in the club. Ed Tremblay paid because the club has met its target of 5 new members. He is happy to see Sue Austin again. He met her in the past at banking functions. County Executive Dan McCoy held a round table discussion at the Cohoes Senior Center this morning about how the state budget will affect Albany County. Panelists were Dan McCoy, Assemblyman John McDonald, Mayor George Primeau and Ed Tremblay. Watch the news. Ed also paid because his wife Linda was able to attend the meeting today.

Linda Tremblay paid because she was happy to be at the meeting today and for missed meetings.

Kyle Wojcik paid because she is happy to be the club's newest member and thanked her sponsor Jake Robert.

Club Business

Bob Van Alstine announced that the club will be holding a Mother's Day 50/50 raffle. Tickets were distributed or mailed to members. Bob stressed the importance of every member selling all ten tickets they were given and encouraged members to sell more than ten tickets. May 31 is the Multi-District Conference at Turning Stone Casino. The Latham Club will be holding a meeting on June 7. Speakers will be from CDTA and SUNY Albany's Nanoscience Center. All Rotarians are invited. April 6 is the District Assembly at Skidmore College. May 3 is Global Youth Service Day and the club will be holding its spring clean up at Cayuga Plaza with the assistance of students. The Mastodon Run is May 19. The Cohoes Rotary will be manning a water distribution table for the runners.

Program

Lisa Osorio from Marra's Pharmacy gave a presentation about the upcoming Mastodon Run on May 19. There will be a 5K and 15K run as well as a kid's fun run. The route takes runners literally through all parts of the city. For further information go to:
