Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Mike Brooks paid for Micah Brady, Linda and Ed Tremblay's grandson's picture appearing in the Cohoes School District newsletter.

Bev Signoracci paid because she attended Grandparents Day at her granddaughter's school and she was glad to see that they still recite the Pledge of Allegiance.

Al Pasinella paid because he is going to visit his new granddaughter in Boston.

Jennifer Keigley paid because she was able to be a Good Samaritan by giving someone a ride whose car had broken down in Saratoga. The person had recently had back surgery and was struggling.

Byron Moak paid because he was happy to be at the meeting and happy to report that he is feeling better after a weekend stay in the hospital.

Colin Demers paid because his youngest daughter has graduated from college in Paris. She is there for six more weeks and searching for a job there.

Diane Conroy-LaCivita paid because her oldest daughter graduated from The College of St. Rose and has moved to Cape Cod for a job.

Bob Van Alstine paid to announce that he is going to be a grandfather in November.

Linda Tremblay paid because she was happy to be at the meeting and hopes her granddaughter stops teething soon so she will start napping again.

Club Business

Bob Van Alstine reminded the members about the Multi-District Conference in June at Turning Stone Casino. It is now possible to attend for just one day. Diane Conroy-LaCivita is working with the Lansingburgh Club to set an itinerary for the GSE Team visiting from Brazil. They will be touring

The Leadership Team will be meeting with President Elect Dave Mitola to set goals for next year. Bob Van Alstine has been chosen to be Rotary Assistant District Governor for Area 8.
