Club Business:

Dave Mitola reported that since the club has adopted Cayuga Plaza as a community service project, the clean up for Cayuga Plaza has been scheduled for September 29. Rotarians will clean and mulch the area. Next spring we will plant flowers. Keith Hornbrook encouraged members to invite others to help with the clean up. Curtis Hovey and staff from the Cohoes Community Center will be joining in the clean up.

The regular Rotary meeting on September 12 will be held at the Van Schaick Mansion. We will have an abbreviated meeting and then have a tour of the house and grounds. Please RSVP to Dave Mitola if you plan to attend. The Century House will be providing box lunches and therefore Dave will need a count
