Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Bob Van Alstine paid for his wife Karen. She fell down a flight of stairs and fractured five vertebrae but thankfully will have a full recovery.

Colin Demers paid because he said that the police cleared Bob of any suspicion for Karen's accident. He wished Gordon (our waiter) a happy birthday. His birthday was a few nights earlier. The staff sang to him since Gordon always sings to patrons for their birthdays. He also paid because there will be a convention coming to the Century House for people who raise llamas. They will be bringing llamas with them.

Byron Moak paid because he was happy to be here and sorry to hear about Karen Van Alstine's accident.

Mike Brooks paid because given that llamas will be at the Century House this week he is concerned about what lunch will be next week. He also wished Gordon a happy birthday.

Bev Signoracci paid because she was bringing her granddaughter to see Annie at the Cohoes Music Hall.

Marshall Barrett paid because he is going to Boston to visit his granddaughter.

Ed Tremblay paid to congratulate George Primeau for winning the election for Mayor of the City of Cohoes.
