Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Mike Brooks was sad for forgetting Monica Marro's name. He was happy that Siena won. He reported that Jack Farrell's surgery is next week.

Bob Van Alstine was happy that his wife Karen is doing better but she gets tired easily.

Chris Madden paid because Curtis was good and did not eat dessert.

Curtis Hovey thanked Jennifer Keigley for getting someone to assist him in moving a large piece of furniture that was donated to a family in need.

Ed Tremblay was sad about the fire at Matt's Fish Fry.

Marshall Barrett was happy to welcome the guests today.

Bev Signoracci announced that the committee is hoping to have around 100 people attending the Jimmy Buffett Night on Saturday. She was also happy to have her family at the meeting with her.

Bo Goliber paid because she just learned that Matt Secor, a renowned Ultimate Fighter, will be at her upcoming fundraiser.

Monica Marro was happy to be at the meeting. She is a Keveny graduate.

Dave Mitola was happy about the good turnout at the meeting. He was happy to have Bo Goliber as the speaker. He was also happy that his wife was able to fix their broken garage door.

Club Business:

The Jimmy Buffett night will be held at the Cohoes K of C on April 12. May 9th the club will be participating in Global Youth Service Day and May 10th the club will be manning a water table for the Mastodon Run. Volunteers are needed for both events. There will be a District training held this week.

Program: Bo Goliber spoke about the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society's Woman of the Year campaign.

Response: Dave Mitola responded on behalf of the club.

We conclude each weekly meeting with recitation of The 4 Way Test, led by Kevin Pezze.

The 4-Way Test

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
