Bob Van Alstine was happy that the Yankees won.

Jack Madden was happy for a nice weekend in New Hampshire and paid for missed meetings.

Bev Signoracci thanked the club for singing to her for her birthday. She reminded everyone that the Installation Banquet will be June 24. She was sad to report that she fell and also had an auto accident.

Byron Moak was sad that former colleague Joe Manupella who was active in the Lansingburgh Boy's and Girl's Club passed away. He was happy about finally getting a Triple Crown win. On June 13 Byron will be participating in the Flag Day parade as Blueberry the Clown.

Marshall Barrett was happy that in the absence of an American Flag in the room Chris Madden used her coat (with an American Flag on it) as a substitute for the Pledge of Allegiance.

Ed Tremblay paid for missed meetings and was happy that the Farmer's Market will be beginning on Friday.

Curtis Hovey was happy for a successful Mayor's Cup Golf Tournament.

Dave Mitola was happy for his son's 5th birthday. He was also happy for a successful golf tournament. He was sad that the priest from St. Augustine's Church was being transferred to Philadelphia.

Club Business: The Installation Banquet will be held June 24th. It is a buffet lunch. Cost is $18 per person. Committee Chairs are asked to send their committee goals to Curtis. The slate of officers was approved by email vote.

Program: Kathleen La Bombard gave an update on the Community Center fundraising events. The Mayor's Cup Golf Tournament had 130 golfers and made around $20,000. During the month of July they will be holding their Ten Day Raffle. September 18 will be the Fall Fling. The Fashion Show is scheduled for January 1, 2016.

The 4-Way Test

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
