The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Mike Brooks announced that his house should be on the market by the end of this week. He was happy that the Orioles are 9 games up. His favorite team is anyone who plays Notre Dame.

Bob Van Alstine is happy that Karen is well enough to be back babysitting two children three days a week. He hopes it works out.

Jack Madden was happy that he and Chris threw the first pitch at a Valley Cats game in memory of their son Matthew. He was also happy that interviews are taking place internally for a replacement for his position. Jack encouraged everyone to vote in the primary next week.

Chuck Ries made a contribution in honor of Matthew Madden.

Linda Tremblay paid for missed meetings and was happy to be able to attend today.

Colin Demers was happy to be seated on the dance floor in the White Ballroom. He was in New York City on the hottest day of the year moving his daughter into an apartment.

Ed Tremblay paid because his mother lived her whole life in the house directly behind Mike Brooks. When she was growing up the house belonged to Walter Wertime.
