Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Byron Moak was glad to be at the meeting. The Lansingburgh Club had their Spaghetti Dinner fundraiser. They did well. At the dinner he saw Cohoes Rotary Past President Ed Dyer and Walt Speidel's son Richard who send their regards to the club. He was sad to have lost a fellow staff member in the school district who passed away suddenly.

Mike Brooks told his usual jokes.

Dave Mitola was sad to have missed the students last week. He was happy that he and his family saw The Lion King at Proctors. He was happy to have seen an Albany Devils hockey game.

Bob Van Alstine was happy to also have seen The Lion King. He was happy to have had such good representation at the District training from the Cohoes club. The annual District Conference will be held in Lake Placid. He encouraged the members of the club to attend.

Chuck Ries was happy to have attended the District training. He complimented the amount of effort that was put into organizing such a training.

Ed and Linda Tremblay were happy to have attended the District training.

Marshall Barrett was sad to report that his father fell out of his chair while Marshall was out. He couldn't get up so he and Marshall's mother sat on the floor together for two hours until Marshall's brother could get there to pick him up.
