Bob Van Alstine was happy for a successful Rotary District IT training event Monday night at Curtis Lumber. Tomorrow is the kick off for President Elect training.

Byron Moak was happy that the Lansingburgh Club's chicken barbecue was a success and sad about the hot weather.

Chris Madden was happy to see Al Pasinella at the meeting and sad that her husband Jack had to attend another meeting and could not be here today.

Dave Mitola was sad that he had to attend a wake. He was happy to have made it to the Valley Cats game. He missed a foul ball.

Marshall Barrett was happy that his granddaughter successfully swam a one mile race.

Ed Tremblay was sad to learn that Cohoes photographer Jeff Couch passed away. He was happy that his granddaughter Addison passed her baked egg food challenge at the allergist's office. She can now safely eat cake.

Curtis Hovey was happy that the Cohoes Community Center is working on their Fall Fling and doing repair work on the pool.

Club Business:

Save the Date! There will be District 7190 training at Siena College on October 17.

Program: Al Pasinella was the club's guest of honor. He has been a member of the Cohoes Rotary since 1981. Given that Al and his wife spend the majority of their time living in Florida these days Al has officially resigned from the club. The Cohoes Rotary presented Al with a token of the club's appreciation and thanked him for his years of service to the Cohoes Rotary.

Response: Al thanked the club for the award and the club's well wishes.

The 4-Way Test

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"
