Good News/Bad News:

Chuck Ries was happy to see everyone.

Mike Brooks was happy to see everyone and happy to be seen. He read some words of wisdom.

Roderick Sipe was happy to see everyone and happy that his two youngest children who are teachers out of state are back home and staying with him and Karen for a while.

Bill Sage was happy for the sunshine and happy for the fact that he is still able to go to his office.

Bob Van Alstine was happy to report that his back surgery went well. His pain is pretty much gone. He is very thankful for his doctor.

Byron Moak was happy to be on the phone but sad that he couldn't see people's faces. His sister sent him some lovely flowers.

Colin Demers was happy to report that he and his family are all well. The Century House staff is down to seven people working at the moment, "The Magnificent Seven." The Century House did sell 300 Easter dinners to go.

Ed Tremblay gave an update on the activities of the staff of LifePath. The staff in Cohoes is delivering meals to the three senior citizen housing complexes and making outreach telephone calls to seniors to check on their wellbeing. Linda is now homeschooling their grandchildren. She is the teacher. He is the principal.

Club Business: The meeting was a video meeting using the platform Zoom. This is the free version which has its limitations. After some discussion it was decided to purchase Zoom Pro since there is no telling how long it will be before the pandemic subsides enough that any Rotary clubs will be able to meet face-to-face.

The 4-Way Test

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

The Wild Rover

I've been a wild rover for many a year,
And I spent all my money on whiskey and beer,
And now I'm returning with gold in great store,
And I never will play the wild rover no more.

And it's no, nay, never,
No nay never no more,
Will I play the wild rover,
No never no more.
