Good News/Bad News:

Mike Brooks read some words of wisdom.

Byron Moak wishes the weather would improve. Byron was sorry that his sister and her husband are sick. Byron enjoyed the retired teacher's luncheon he attended and the LifePath Third Age awards. Tomorrow Byron is having a root canal at Dr. Mitola's office. He found out that his hip replacement surgery rehabilitation will be covered by his insurance. Byron wished everyone a happy Mother's Day.

Dave Havnen gets his eye injection tomorrow. He was sorry that the high school team has had poor weather to play in.

Bill Sage enjoyed the LifePath Third Age Awards. He was sorry that Ed and Linda Tremblay were not able to attend. Bill's daughter is just getting over Covid, and her husband is just starting with Covid.

Tammy Parker was happy that they booked the venue for her older son's wedding. Now they are working on booking the venue for her second son's wedding.

Chuck Ries was having problems getting the audio for the Zoom meeting to work on his computer. He manages to get through by using his headphones. Chuck thanked everyone who attended the LifePath Third Age Awards. He thought the event went off very well. He hopes it was lucrative for LifePath. Chuck was happy for the spring rain. Better weather is coming. NYS is preparing the canals for opening.

Ed Tremblay stated that he and Linda were so disappointed that they were unable to attend the Third Age Awards because they both had Covid. Ed liked the video Chuck Ries recorded for the event. Ed noted that the Third Age awards were a financial success for LifePath. He reported that Dr McElroy from RPI made the headlines on the sports page of The Record for being one of the recipients of the Third Age Awards. Ed was sorry to report that his sister had triple by-pass surgery. She is doing well.

Linda Tremblay reported that her case of Covid is mild. She was disappointed to have missed the Third Age Awards.

Roderick Sipe wished everyone a happy Star Wars day. He and his wife visited their daughter in Vermont. Then they went on to New Hampshire to visit his son's family for his grandson's 9th birthday.
