Good News/Bad News:

Byron Moak was happy to be home from rehab for his hip replacement surgery. He hopes to be at the Rotary Board meeting on July 5. He missed not being able to attend meetings. He wished everyone a good July 4th.

Dave Havnen checked the Rotary International website. He is officially a Paul Harris +8. Dave purchased a new car. However, he couldn't pick it up because the dealer is not sure where it is located.

Tammy Parker was surprised by her boss. She is going to have a four day weekend.

Bill Sage had a great week in Pennsylvania. They visited his grandson at Penn State. Then they visited friends in Lancaster for Father's Day.

Ed Tremblay is busy writing letters of support for the City of Cohoes for grants they are applying for. So far this City administration has gotten over $20 million in grants.

Linda Tremblay needs to start packing again for their upcoming trip to Hawaii.

Roderick Sipe was quite ill with Covid earlier in the month but is feeling well now. Roderick's new granddaughter is doing well.
