Mike Brooks read some words of wisdom.

Bob Van Alstine will be able to start walking again tomorrow. His feet are healed. Bob finished the copyright process on the new book he is writing.

Byron Moak is enjoying all the Halloween decorations. Byron had blood tests today. The physical therapy on his shoulder is helping. He recently attended some events for the Masons. Byron will be taking a trip to Vermont.

Dave Havnen was happy to welcome new member Ken Rose to the club. Unfortunately, Dave will get his eye injection in a few hours.

Ken Rose was happy to be joining the club.

Bill Sage was happy that the sun was shining today. He was happy to see Ken Rose.

Ed Tremblay was happy to report that the donations of coats for the coat drive were overwhelming. Ed urged the club to spread the word that anyone from Cohoes, Waterford or Watervliet needing a coat should come to the coat drive at the Cohoes Senior Center on Friday or Saturday. Ed noted that LifePath's annual Senior Expo will be held Friday at Crossgates Mall. Ed reported that the Cohoes Artist Showcase was a success.

Linda Tremblay was happy to be able to meet in person.

Club Business:

The City of Cohoes/Cohoes Rotary Halloween Party will be held on Friday, October 28. Volunteers are needed to staff the party. There has been a change in location for the party. It will be held in Canal Square, not the Senior Center. Gently used coats can be donated for the Coat Collection Drive. People will be able to shop for coats (for free) at LifePath at Cohoes Senior Center October 21-22. The ornaments and mugs for the holiday fundraiser have been ordered. The design is the 1968 Cohoes High School. The first raffle will be a Thanksgiving raffle. Tickets were distributed to members at the meeting and mailed to those not in attendance. The drawing will be on November 23.

Rotary International President Jennifer Jones imagines a Rotary where members act to make their dreams become reality and make the most of their club experiences. During her year, Jones will focus on four presidential initiatives that Imagine Rotary: advancing our commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI); creating a welcoming club experience; empowering girls; and expanding our reach.
