Good News/Bad News:

Mike Brooks read some words of wisdom.
Roderick Sipe and his wife Karen upgraded their cell phones. Roderick went from an iPhone 6 to a 14. He had to Facetime his daughter and son-in-law in San Francisco to have them help get the phones operational.
Bob Van Alstine recently upgraded his cell phone from an iPhone 8 to a 13.
Tim Williams spent some quality time in the Adirondacks with his daughters with the Girl Scouts.
Byron Moak was glad not to be living in Florida given the damage the recent hurricane caused. Byron enjoyed the fundraiser at the Tremblay house, especially the Hawaiian Meatballs. He was in Syracuse for a meeting of the Scottish Rite. Next weekend Byron will be at a Shriners convention at the Crowne Plaza Desmond. There will be a cruise on the Dutch Apple included.
Ed Tremblay thanked everyone for attending the fundraiser for LifePath. He raised over $5,100. The Choose Cohoes for Arts group has office space in the former Cohoes Savings Bank Foundation building on Remsen Street. It will be called A Place for Art. This year's Cohoes Artist's Showcase will be held October 14-15 at A Place for Art.
Linda Tremblay was still tired from the party in her yard. She is looking forward to spending Columbus Day weekend at the Sagamore in Lake George.

Club Business:

The City of Cohoes/Cohoes Rotary Halloween Party will be held on Friday, October 28. Volunteers are needed to staff the party. There has been a change in location for the party. It will be held in Canal Square, not the Senior Center. Gently used coats can be donated for the Coat Collection Drive. People will be able to shop for coats (for free) at LifePath at Cohoes Senior Center October 21-22. The ornaments and mugs for the holiday fundraiser have been ordered. The design is the 1968 Cohoes High School.

The 4-Way Test "Of the things we think, say or

Rotary International President Jennifer Jones imagines a Rotary where members act to make their dreams become reality and make the most of their club experiences. During her year, Jones will focus on four presidential initiatives that Imagine Rotary: advancing our commitment to Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion (DEI); creating a welcoming club experience; empowering girls; and expanding our reach.
