The 4-Way Test of the things we think,
say and do:

- Is it the Truth?
- Is it Fair to all concerned?
- Will it build Goodwill and Better Friendships?
- Will it be Beneficial to all concerned?

Powerball: Bob Van Alstine tried for $51 but was unsuccessful.

Good News/Bad News

Mike Brooks read some words of wisdom.

Chuck Ries had four racoons nesting in his furnace. Only one survived.

Bob Van Alstine's friend who fell had surgery and is now on his way to rehab.

Alicia Phillips and her husband Josh will be going away for her birthday.

Byron Moak had a squirrel in his basement. Today is the first full day of spring. Byron enjoyed the St. Patrick's Day dinner at the Cohoes Senior Center. He attended the Shriner's Convention in Saratoga over the weekend and received the Distinguished Shriner of the Year award.

Dave Havnen was happy to have no doctor's appointments.

Bill Sage was happy for the good weather.

Ken Rose was happy that his son from Boston visited.

Raychel Marcil has been busy organizing the boys' basketball banquet. She was away at a conference last week.

Linda Tremblay is looking forward to the Cohoes High School production of Legally Blonde. Tomorrow is opening night.

Ed Tremblay was happy that LifePath received a $55,000 grant from the American Rescue Plan.

Program

Alicia Phillips owns Paint Cohoes Art Studio & Gallery on Remsen Street. The studio is open to professionals and novices. She offers classes, workshops, and exhibit space. Alicia is starting the Spindle City Art Walk. It will be a monthly event featuring arts, music, and food. Hopefully, this event will bring traffic into downtown Cohoes.
