Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Mike Brooks thanked Bob Van Alstine for the ride to the meeting. He read some words of wisdom.

Bev Signoracci went to the doctor. While she was there the fire alarm went off and everyone was evacuated to the parking lot.

Chuck Ries talked about how discrimination is in the news these days. He was happy that Rotary no longer excludes women. He was happy that Siena College won on Saturday. He was happy that he will be in South Carolina in two weeks.

Bob Van Alstine liked President Trump's address to Congress last night.

Byron Moak was glad it was March. He is happy that in March the clocks change and the Snowman ice cream shop opens. He was happy that his stress test results were good.

Marshall Barrett commented on how long the applause was for Mrs. Ryan during President Trump's speech. He said that applause is all President Trump seems to understand. Marshall was sad that the house next door to him is becoming a horse farm.

Club Business:

The Cohoes Rotary 90th Anniversary Celebration will be held at The Venue in Cohoes on April 27. Bob Van Alstine is working on a history of the Cohoes Rotary for the event. Bob will send out a questionnaire to club members for their memories of the club for his presentation.

1. Is it the TRUTH?
2. Is it FAIR to all concerned?
3. Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?
4. Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?"

Song: Harrigan

H-A-double R-I, G-A-N, spells Harrigan, I'm proud of all the Irish blood that's in me,
Divil a man can say a word agin me.
H-A-double R-I, G-A-N you see.
It's a name,
That a shame never has been connected with,
HARRIGAN, that's me.
