Good News/Bad News:

The following members paid happy/sad dollars:

Bob Van Alstine was happy that he and Karen participated in a historical reenactment at the Van Alstine Homestead.

Byron Moak was happy to have had a good birthday celebration at the Red Lion Inn. He was also glad for the much needed rain we had. He was sad because a murder trial has just begun and he knew the victims of the crime.

Mike Brooks thanked Bob Van Alstine for the ride to the meeting. He read some words of wisdom.

Linda Tremblay was sad that when she went to pick up her grandchildren this morning the moving van was in front of the Maddens' house. They will be missed.

Ed Tremblay was sad that Pastor Wendell Williams of the Good Ground Church passed away.

Bev Signoracci was also sad that Wendell Williams passed away. Wendell was in treatment at the same time as Bev's brother and they would often see each other.

Marshall Barrett thanked the club for the flowers they sent to his father's wake and thanked all the members who attended the wake, sent cards or prayers. He was sad that while parking his mother's car in the Century House parking lot today he backed into a tree and broke the back window of the car.

Dave Mitola was happy to pay for his 13th anniversary. He was happy that the family had a great trip to the Outer Banks. He was sad for the passing of George Primeau and Richard Barrett.
